Juan Pablo Plazas: Breathing Document

October 25 - November 30, 2025

Gallery Hours: Thurs + Fri: 4 - 6PM, Sat + Sun: 2 - 6PM

Welcome to Breathing Document, an exhibition by Juan Pablo Plazas at Open Source Gallery!

Who is the artist?

Juan Pablo Plazas is an artist who's a bit like a detective, but instead of clues, he's searching for surprises hidden in ordinary places. Just like painters who paint what they see or sculptors who shape what they feel, Juan Pablo observes the people and things around him. He believes that every neighborhood has its own personality, and this gallery is part of that. It's a place where visitors, neighbors, and friends can all come together to imagine new possibilities.

Why is the exhibition called Breathing Document?

This exhibition is called Breathing Document because Juan Pablo is turning the gallery into a space that can change and grow, almost like it's alive. The space will begin as a mystery: maybe it's a shop, a cozy hangout spot, or something that hasn't been invented yet. As people visit, they'll help shape what the gallery becomes. Together, everyone becomes part of the artwork.

Imagine:

Imagine if this gallery was in your neighborhood, what would you add to make it special for your community? Would it be a reading corner filled with pillows? A garden full of plants? A stage for music and dancing? The possibilities are endless!

Draw what you need:
